Third Party Appeals

What is a third party appeal?

A third party appeal is an appeal filed with the Board by someone other than the assessed (property owner).

How do I file a third party appeal?

If you wish to file a third party appeal, please complete the Board's Property Assessment Appeal Form found on our website. Be sure to complete all sections of the form including part 5 (Third Party Appeal Information).

As a non-owner, you must appeal the assessment directly to the Board first and may not file a RfR with MPAC. You must send a copy of the appeal form to the owner by the filing deadline. The appeal deadline is March 31 of the tax year for annual assessments, or 90 days from the notice date for other types of assessments. If the property owner is not sent a copy, your appeal will not be considered valid. Please be sure to include the date you sent the property owner a copy of the appeal form when submitting your appeal form.

What do I do if someone files a third party appeal against my property?

If someone files an appeal against your property you will receive a copy of the appeal form from the individual who filed the appeal. As the assessed individual, you will also receive notice for any subsequent hearing event; however it is optional whether you wish to attend or not. Once a decision has been rendered on the appeal, you will receive a copy in the mail.
